

Outlier criteria is the mean or median mouse body-length in all frames $\times C$ where C is a user defined float (e.g., $C = 1.5$). Use the Outlier settings menu to define the body parts used to calculate the animal lengths. This menu is also used to define C, and to specify whether to use the median or mean animal length

